

focused on buying this company for over a decade, so it was just a matter of time. When he told me that Darryn was involved, I couldn't have been more excited. These two young men are the future of Filter Queen and this company has never been in better hands.”

Murphy and his wife Kelly began their Filter Queen careers nearly 25 years ago in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada when they met and began selling the product. As their journey continued, they found themselves working and opening Filter Queen offices throughout Canada before finally settling in Vancouver over a decade ago. The couple has created the largest active Filter Queen organization in the world today and has been Health-Mor's #1 Distributor for the past five consecutive years. In addition to having offices in every province in Canada, Murphy has also added distributors in China and the Philippines. While Darryn travels the world working to grow his whole goods business and remain the leader in the industry, Kelly manages Health-Mor's largest aftermarket service program, with a database of over 50,000 active customers who rely on her company to service and maintain their Filter Queen products all across Canada.

The private company does not release financial information or the company's revenue figures. Details of the sale of Health-Mor were not released to the public.
